After Church

Yes, _______ yes... Yes, May and I are friends,____ lovers,____ many have said:____ yes... for down the lane and o'er the lane to church we oft'en tread____

...we oft'en tread, in that care-less sort of way that leads____ to love,____
After Church

they say, and after church we often search for gar-lands by the way.

Yes, May and I are friends, and some-thing more, (some-thing) they say:

—yes... be-cause a-long the curv-ed strand, where we sat the o-th-er day,
After Church

I simply wrote her name, and wrote and wrote and wrote it o'er.

again; again; and after church.

we stopped to search for shells along the main.

Yes.

Yes.
After Church

Yes, yes... More than friends are we, my bon-ny May, my bon-ny May and I;

at least that's what our neigh-bors say, when-e'er they pass us by.

they smile and wink their eye, and wink, and wink, and set their necks a-wry.
After Church

60

_ a - wry,_

when af- ter church._

we stop to search for heart's ease, May and I._

Yes...

70

Yes...

May and I._

Yes.

76

_ ritardando al fine

We stop when af- ter church._

May and I._

Yes.

circa 5' 00"